Introduction

The Department of Health, Bureau of Drug and Alcohol Programs (BDAP), in collaboration with Early Intervention Technical Assistance, is pleased to distribute this directory of drug and alcohol programs that offer specialized service(s) to Women, Pregnant Women, and Women with Children. This directory identifies licensed programs that provide gender-sensitive drug and alcohol treatment and services. The directory is organized by the type of service provided (i.e. Halfway House, Outpatient) as well as by the county in which the facility is located.

Among the many unique features of gender-sensitive programs is the link between treatment provided to mothers and services provided to their children. These services, traditionally rendered in the long-term residential setting, are now offered across the continuum of care. At the outpatient, intensive outpatient, and partial levels of care, age appropriate prevention programs are frequently provided on-site while mothers are in counseling and/or group therapy sessions. In programs that are responsive to the needs of this population, therapeutic interventions for children are made available on site or by referral through cooperative agreements with other agencies.

Due to the fluid nature of drug and alcohol treatment programs, it is difficult to maintain a current listing. Anyone seeking services should consult their local Single County Authority (SCA) to determine treatment program availability and eligibility for services. The SCA phone numbers and addresses are listed in the back of this directory for your convenience and reference.

For additional copies of this directory, please contact:

Gender Specific Service Description:

Bed Capacity: 16

A short and long term inpatient, non-hospital, residential program which addresses gender specific issues related to recovery from addiction to substances. This program offers group and individual modalities to address those issues which may impede recovery: physical and sexual abuse, and co-dependency. Skill building will focus on the development of healthy relationships and self esteem. Continued care planning and referral for follow up support are included.

SHELTER

Provides individuals with basic housing and essential case management supportive services in a safe environment. This type of housing tends to be transitional in nature; however, the program may have a component that allows for long-term housing and provision or connection to needed social services. The goal is to foster independent living skills.
